Indie Music Videos on DATV

Local Videos Wanted

Dayton, Ohio - 3/8/06 - - Local, regional and national "indie" bands have a new outlet for their music in Dayton.

"Cutting Edge" a one hour locally produced music video program can be seen Fridays at 9pm on DATV, Time Warner Cable Channel 20, in the City of Dayton, Riverside and Butler Twp.

The program produced by DATV

Production Assistant Dale Grow features hot new independent music videos. Some of the bands currently airing are; "Voodoo Blue", "School Yard Heroes", "Lady Sovereign" and "Ghost Buffalo".

Local Music Videos Wanted

If you are a member of a local band who has a music video that you have produced and would like to see in on "Cutting Edge" contact Dale Grow at 223-5311 or dale@datv.org

"Public Access Television is home to many yet undiscovered talents in Dayton," said Dale Grow. "We hope our program will help to feature talented artists who don't have an outlet for their music."
